In this season of tricks, it's only fair
To share in the fun with a sweet little scare

You have been BOO-ed, but there's no need to fear
It's just a bag of goodies to help spread some cheer.

And while ghosts and goblins go bump in the night
And witches and warlocks will stir tons of fright

Those creepers can't keep all the fun to themselves
Good neighbors can favor a treat just as well.

So have yourself the happiest Halloween ever!
These goodies can make a good time even better!
